

Read Genesis 24:10-16

10 Then the servant left, taking with him ten of his master's camels loaded with all kinds of good things from his master. He set out for Aram Naharaim and made his way to the town of Nahor.

11 He had the camels kneel down near the well outside the town; it was toward evening, the time the women go out to draw water.

12 Then he prayed, "LORD, God of my master Abraham, make me successful today, and show kindness to my master Abraham.

13 See, I am standing beside this spring, and the daughters of the townspeople are coming out to draw water.

14 May it be that when I say to a young woman, 'Please let down your jar that I may have a drink,' and she says, 'Drink, and I'll water your camels too'—let her be the one you have chosen for your servant Isaac. By this I will know that you have shown kindness to my master."

15 Before he had finished praying, Rebekah came out with her jar on her shoulder. She was the daughter of Bethuel son of Milkah, who was the wife of Abraham's brother Nahor.

16 The woman was very beautiful, and she had never been married. She went down to the spring, filled her jar and came up again.

When the servant left on his trip to find a wife for Isaac, what did he take with him (v. 10)?
Ten camels loaded with all kinds of things.

What did he plan to do with all the goods? To give them to the woman and her family as a present and to perhaps bless the woman's family to help make up for her loss.

What did the servant do when he came to the town of Nahor (v. 11)? He had his camels kneel down near the well so he could give them water.

What did he do next (v. 12)? He prayed before he started looking for a wife for Abraham.

What did he pray for (v. 12)? For God to help him.

What was his plan that he proposed to God (vv. 13-14)? (Read) A plan that would reveal the character of the woman he would encounter. What kind of a woman she was was the most important thing to look for.

What happened even before he was done praying (v. 15)? A woman (Rebekah) came out with her water jar on her shoulder.

How would you describe the woman who came to the well/spring (v. 16)? She was very beautiful, and she had never been married.

What did the woman do? She filled up her water jar and came up from the well.
