

Read Genesis 13:1-9

1 So Abram went up from Egypt to the Negev, with his wife and everything he had, and Lot went with him.

2 Abram had become very wealthy in livestock and in silver and gold.

3 From the Negev he went from place to place until he came to Bethel, to the place between Bethel and Ai where his tent had been earlier

4 and where he had first built an altar. There Abram called on the name of the LORD.

5 Now Lot, who was moving about with Abram, also had flocks and herds and tents.

6 But the land could not support them while they stayed together, for their possessions were so great that they were not able to stay together.

7 And quarreling arose between Abram's herders and Lot's. The Canaanites and Perizzites were also living in the land at that time.

8 So Abram said to Lot, "Let's not have any quarreling between you and me, or between your herders and mine, for we are close relatives.

9 Is not the whole land before you? Let's part company. If you go to the left, I'll go to the right; if you go to the right, I'll go to the left."

When Abram left Egypt, where did he go (v. 1)? To the Negev. Where was that? In the southern part of the Promised Land.

Who went with him? His wife Sarai and his nephew Lot.

Was Abram rich (v. 2)? Yes. He had lots of silver and gold and lots of animals.

Where did Abram go next (vv. 3-4)? He went from one place to another and finally settled in Bethel where he had camped earlier (Genesis 12:8).

What did Abram do there (v. 4)? He worshipped God.

Was Lot rich (v. 5)? Yes. Just like Abram, Lot had lots of animals

What was the problem they had (v. 6)? There was not enough grass for all of Abram's and Lot's animals to eat.

What started happening (v. 7)? Abram's shepherds and Lot's shepherds started arguing

What did Abram say to Lot (vv. 8-9)? Let's don't argue because we are relatives. There is lots of land for our animals. Why don't we separate. You go one direction and I will go the other way.

So, Abram told Lot that he could have first choice of whatever part of the Promised Land he wanted. What does that tell us about Abram? He loved his nephew Lot. Abram trusted God for where he would live. He was humble. He deserved to get first choice of the land.
